

I urge you not to relax broadcast ownership rules. For financial reasons the media is already controlled by too few owners (ie. Clear Channel for radio stations). This gives a few owners far too much control over content. Choice is fundamental to preserving the First Ammendment.